

Identity Management

Fieldware were recently awarded a Deed of Standing Offer for the Australian Government Information Management Office (AGIMO) Identity Management Contract Panel due to our extensive background and experience in Smartcard and Biometric projects.

We are able to offer specialist consultants with experience in security design (PKI, LAN, WAN, MESH and wireless platforms for smartcard and biometric authentication and identity management system's architecture.

Fieldware have a presence on a number of International Standards Committees involved in identity management, smartcards and biometrics having been involved with ICAO SC37 and contactless smartcard SC17 working groups since 2003.